

Middle School Art Facilitator

The Middle School Art Facilitator is responsible for inspiring creativity, fostering artistic expression, and promoting a love for the visual arts among middle school students. This role involves planning and delivering engaging art lessons, encouraging students to explore various mediums, and providing a supportive environment that nurtures their artistic talents.

He/She should:

- Design and develop a dynamic art curriculum that aligns with educational standards and encourages students to explore various art forms.
- Integrate cross-disciplinary connections within the curriculum to enhance learning experiences.
- Deliver interactive and engaging art lessons that cater to diverse learning styles and abilities.
- Demonstrate artistic techniques and guide students in developing their skills and understanding of artistic concepts.
- Introduce students to a variety of art mediums, such as drawing, painting, sculpture, and digital media.
- Encourage experimentation and self-expression through hands-on projects.
- Provide constructive feedback and support for students to improve their skills.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Art Education, Fine Arts, or a related field.
- A graduate subject specialist with a teaching certification.
- Previous experience teaching art at the middle school level is preferred.
- Strong knowledge of various art techniques, mediums, and art history.
- Passion for fostering creativity and a love for the visual arts in students.

Qualities:

Dedication to the job, the ARIS core values, subject-specific expertise, student centred teaching approaches, the ability to apply differentiation in the classroom, effective classroom management as well as good relations with students, staff and parents are the qualities sought.

She or He should teach students in a way that will enable them to gain a commitment to, skills in, and a thorough knowledge of Art.