

David Ochieng Oloo
MYP Coordinator

David Ochieng Oloo graduated with a B. Ed (Arts) from the University of Nairobi. He later completed an MA (Project Planning) program with the same university. He has been a Vice Principal (MYP) at the Aga Khan Academy, Mombasa and a Deputy Head of Secondary (MYP) at United World College East Africa, Moshi Campus (formerly ISM).

He has a wealth of experience providing leadership in the successful implementation of major MYP projects in these IB schools including MYP 2014 developments and IB eAssessments. He is internationally recognized as an IB consultant, site visitor, workshop leader and Building Quality Curriculum (BQC) reviewer among others. He is also an experienced MYP and DP Mathematics teacher and examines one of the subjects.

David has a passion for nurturing and mentoring leaders. He believes in an education that empowers and nurtures young people to reach their potential to enable them participate effectively in local and international development while caring for humanity.

He loves to read and listen to music
